

U.S. CITIZENS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Self Reported/Unofficial Test Scores Policy

Clarkson accepts unofficial SAT and ACT scores on applications for admission from students who attend high school within the United States. Students from outside the United States are required to submit official standardized testing as part of the admissions application process. TOEFL or IELTS scores must be official. Official SAT and ACT scores will be required as part of the enrollment process for accepted students.

Unofficial SAT or ACT scores include:

- self-reported scores listed on Clarkson's Unconventional Application or the Common Application
- scores available on the high school transcript
- screen shots or PDF files of score reports provided by the applicant or school counselor emailed to the admissions office at admissions@clarkson.edu.

Additional information for students and school counselors:

- Students and counselors who provide standardized test scores should not superscore.
- Please provide the individual section scores and the date of the test administration.
- Clarkson reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission if there is a discrepancy in self-reported scores versus official scores.
- Upon enrollment, students will be asked to submit official scores from the SAT or ACT.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ATTENDING HIGH SCHOOL IN THE U.S.

Self Reported/Unofficial Test Scores Policy (Students attending high school in the US Only)

Clarkson accepts unofficial SAT and ACT scores on applications for admission from students who attend high school within the United States. Students from outside the United States are required to submit official standardized testing as part of the admissions application process. TOEFL or IELTS scores must be official. Official SAT and ACT scores will be required as part of the enrollment process for accepted students.

Unofficial SAT or ACT scores include:

- self-reported scores listed on Clarkson's Unconventional Application or the Common Application
- scores available on the high school transcript
- screen shots or PDF files of score reports provided by the applicant or school counselor emailed to the admissions office at admissions@clarkson.edu.

Additional information for students and school counselors:

- Students and counselors who provide standardized test scores should not superscore.

- Please provide the individual section scores and the date of the test administration.
- Clarkson reserves the right to withdraw the offer of admission if there is a discrepancy in self-reported scores versus official scores.
- Upon enrollment, students will be asked to submit official scores from the SAT or ACT.